"As a small, independent physician recruiter, I have tried numerous job boards and more often than not been disappointed with the results. When Physician-JobBoard.com came along I thought, here's another job board to try and was expecting the same dismal results. I am glad to say that this has not been the case and I am thrilled with the results I have gotten. The number of new physician candidates being added daily is outstanding along with the quality of the physicians. Additionally, the customer service and individual treatment I have received makes me feel like a true customer and not just another number. Great job PJB!" -- Vicky Rinehart -- InSync Healthcare Recruiters

"Physicianjobboard.com; a company that wants you to succeed. That is my experience with PJB. Their customer service is amazing. There has not been one time when I had a question and had to "wait" for an answer. The company is responsive to its clients and is extremely helpful. PJB offers solutions and friendly service. This company listens and engages with their customers and I find that rare in today's competitive market. I am happy with the service I have received this year as a new customer and hope to continue working with them. Thank you PJB for all you do!" -- Christine Haskell -- Armor Health Care Recruiter
